

June 27, 2018

The ASPIRER Teaching Alliance

2018 Pupil Premium Conference

Tackling disadvantage: back to the evidence

Join us for a day of exploring effective evidence informed approaches to closing the attainment gap.

Come along and hear from leading experts including:

Marc Rowland, Head of Rosendale Research School and author of 'A Practical Guide to the Pupil Premium'.

James Turner, Deputy Chief Executive of the Education Endowment Foundation, Vice Chair of The Brilliant Club, former Director of Programmes and Partnerships at the Sutton Trust.

Kevin Simpson, Chief Executive of the Aspire Educational Trust and The Aspirer Teaching Alliance, National Leader of Education and National Pupil Premium Reviewer.

Representatives from the EEF and Ofsted will be sharing strategies for raising attainment for the most vulnerable pupils.

Education Endowment Foundation

Tickets:

£100 per person

Bring a colleague from the same school for half price!

Book your place by emailing Alison abroadhurst@aet.cheshire.sch.uk

Lunch & refreshments provided for all.

When:

Wednesday 27th June 2018, 9.30am – 3.30pm

Where:

The Romero Conference Centre

All Hallows Catholic College

Brooklands Avenue

Macclesfield Cheshire SK11 8LB

aspirerteachingalliance.co.uk
aspirer.researchschool.org.uk